Undercover informers quitting FBI

WASHINGTON — The Federal Bureau of Investigation has asserted that more than 20 of its undercover informers, concerned that their identities may become public through various inquiries into the bureau's activities, have broken off contact with the bureau over the last three months.

In addition, according to James B. Adams, one of three top aides to FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley, the bureau believes that a number of other informers have "simply ceased to provide adequate information so that the FBI will discontinue their service" in that capacity.

A year ago, according to congressional investigators, the bureau had 1,500 political informers in this country.

Adams made the assertions in an affidavit submitted by the bureau in connection with a lawsuit brought against it and other federal agencies by the Socialist Workers party, a Trotskyist revolutionary organization that until recently was the target of a 38-year investigation by the bureau.

THAT INQUIRY was ordered ended several weeks ago by the Department of Justice, and the party's lawyers are pressing in court for the identities of the informers in the bureau's ranks at the time the order was issued.

The party's argument is that it cannot be certain that the informers have ceased reporting on their activities unless it knows who they are and can take steps to exclude them from its councils.

But Adams, in opposing the disclosure of the names, cited in the affidavit a number of examples in which other bureau informers, most of whom are paid for their services, had withdrawn their cooperation or expressed concern about their safety.

Not all of the examples listed by Adams concerned so-called "security" informers, those that report to the bureau on radical or revolutionary political organizations. In one case, he said, a source "who is in an excellent position to furnish" information about hostile foreign intelligence agents "is being prohibited from doing so by his company," which feared that "his exposure would severely damage its international reputation and contacts."

"Top-level criminal informants have indicated that disclosure of their identities would result in their deaths," Adams asserted.

ADAMS, WHO is in charge of overseeing all the bureau's investigative activities, noted that the public was "well aware of a recent decision ordering that FBI informant files be produced in this litigation."

He referred to a ruling by Thomas P. Griesa, the federal district judge who is hearing the Socialist Workers' lawsuit in New York.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY

On March 22, 1965, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows:

b7C 15X A meeting of the American Nazi Party (ANP) (See Appendix), was held at the residence of Robert [redacted] Surrey, 3506 Lindenwood, Dallas, on the night of March 20, 1965. [redacted] announced that she and others present would attend a meeting of the Dallas City Council on the afternoon of March 22, 1965, to protest the arrest on March 14, 1965, of several white male youths who were conducting a counterdemonstration in opposition to a mass march and meeting sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) on that date.

The foregoing information was furnished to [redacted] Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department and to Lieutenant Colonel [redacted] 112th Intelligence Corps Group, U. S. Army, Dallas, on March 22, 1965.

b7C On the afternoon of March 22, 1965, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed [redacted] introduce herself to members of the City Council at their meeting on that date. She protested that [redacted] a negro NAACP leader, [redacted] but TEXT that on March 14, 1965, [redacted] led 3,000 negroes in a march in Dallas. She said three white men, protesting the march by these people who never contributed anything to society, were arrested. She said members of the Nation of Islam (See Appendix) were allowed to sell their newspapers along the march but were not arrested.

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam," (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLE OF ISLAM IN DALLAS

On July 1, 1960, sources advised that a Nation of Islam (NOI) group had existed at Fort Worth, Texas, since January, 1957, and a group had existed in Dallas, Texas, since September, 1959.

These sources advised on June 1, 1962, that since July 25, 1960, the Islam believers of both Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas, have been meeting together as a merged group known as "Muhammad's Temple of Islam in Dallas." This group obtained temple status on March 19, 1961.

Above sources advised on August 1, 1963, the Dallas Temple of Islam moved from 4520-A Oakland, Dallas, Texas, to new quarters at 2526 1/2 Flora, Dallas, Texas, and would henceforth hold its meetings at this latter address.

The purpose of the Muhammad's Temple of Islam in Dallas is to follow the teachings of Islam as handed down by Elijah Muhammad, national leader. Muhammad's Temple of Islam in Dallas is affiliated with NOI national headquarters at Chicago, Illinois, and adheres to the teachings of Muhammad.

William E. Adams, on instructions from Elijah Muhammad, has moved from Flint, Michigan, to Dallas, Texas, and has assumed authority as minister of this temple. Adams continues to preach hatred of the white race and has praised Communist China.

On June 2, 1964, above sources stated above information remains unchanged.

GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, the source advised that the ANP-WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the American Nazi Party, the phases of American Nazi Party struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses;" second "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party;"

third "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda;" and fourth "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On February 17, 1964, Karl Rogers Allen, Jr., former Deputy National Commander of the American Nazi Party, advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believed that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is now well into the third phase. Allen said, however, in his opinion, Rockwell has only completed phase one.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists,
the George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On September 8, 1967, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP-WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party" according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun," a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR., took command of the Party after ROCKWELL'S assassination.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY, also known as
The American Nazi Party
Dallas, Texas Unit

On November 3, 1967, a source furnished the following information:

The Dallas, Texas, unit of the American Nazi Party (ANP) is a local chapter of the ANP, which has its national headquarters in Arlington, Virginia.

Robert Allen Surrey, a resident of Dallas, Texas, is the national business manager of the ANP and Alvis Neil Gray is the "lieutenant" in charge of the Dallas storm trooper unit, ANP.

As of November, 1967, the Dallas unit consisted of an estimated 20 persons, of which about six persons were storm troopers. The Dallas unit had no actual headquarters, as of November, 1967, but was using the mailing addresses P. O. Box 22071 and P. O. Box 3980, Dallas, Texas.

Activity has consisted of meetings of a social group held on a fairly regular monthly basis, and weekly meetings of the storm trooper group, held every Thursday night. During the months of April, May, June, July, August and September, 1967, the Dallas storm trooper group conducted weekly picket demonstrations at Dealey Plaza, Dallas, Texas, in order to counter the activities of a peace vigil held at that location at the same time. Since September, 1967, however, the Dallas unit of the ANP has discontinued these picket demonstrations.

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On March 13, 1967, Karl Rogers Allen, Jr., who identified himself as leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP) formed the WPA during the early part of 1964 in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964. The National Headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D.C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value and to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media.

Allen stated that the WPA is a racist-type organization with approximately 50 members, 40 of whom are from the Washington, D. C., metropolitan area. Approximately 150 persons or organizations subscribe to the official paper of the WPA, "The White World."

Allen stated that the purpose of the organization is political in nature and definitely nonsubversive, but adheres completely to the Constitution of the United States.

Dear Mr. Hoover -

A man must eventually decide, through the smoke screen, whom he can trust. You I trust. Since my "awakening" about 4 months ago I've read at least 40 books and pamphlets by the thousand, and am still relatively uninformed, but I know enough to be positive that the Communist menace is a very real and close thing.

When I bought a copy of Adam Smith's "Wealth of Nations" and found that the introduction was written by Max Lerner, it hit home.

Now I am a "crusader", attempting to awaken everyone I can.

The point of this letter is: Your book, "Masters of Deceit" is the best tool I have found to awaken others. They will read it and they believe it. They believe it primarily because YOU have maintained through the years a reputation for strict honesty and loyal Americanism, untainted by political smear. And with all my heart I thank God for YOU. You are perhaps, personally, the best rallying-point around which Patriots may gather.

I wish you a long and happy life - but, I have a suggestion. Just as a will is necessary, your loss without a successor would be a blow to our cause. And the word is that "they" are out to get you. Why don't you start now to groom someone you trust to take over the reins if something happens?

I don't mean groom internally, I mean to the American Public. Let him make press releases as "Right hand man to Hoover", and "Hoover's trusted aid" and so forth.

Your loss would be so tremendous to our cause that the suggestion is made merely in the hopes of softening the blow.

Again, thank you for your fine service to God and your Country. I sure wish we had a few more like you in Washington.

Very truly yours,

Robert A. Surrey

Dear Mr. Surrey:

I have received your postal card postmarked August 16, as well as your letter of the same date. I am most appreciative of the thoughtfulness which prompted you to write to me, and I want you to know that your generous comments and expressions of confidence in my administration of this Bureau are indeed reassuring.

It is always encouraging to hear from those who have an awareness of the problems facing our Nation today, and your concern about the menace of communism is understandable. My book, "Masters of Deceit," was intended as a basic text on this subject, and I am pleased that you have found it beneficial.

It was good of you to give me the benefit of your observations. I can assure you that I have no plans to retire at this time. My only desire is to continue to serve our country in my present capacity to the best of my ability.

Enclosed is some literature pertaining to communism which may be of interest to you.

Sincerely yours,

• About Us Preachers

Honestly, now, did you ever see a communist preacher? I've met thousands of preachers in my time of all kinds, classes and faiths and I have never met an unpatriotic one. All the clergymen I know are in sympathy with missions and that means world brotherhood. But none of them is in favor of world brotherhood at the expense of losing our religious heritage or downgrading our national history and heritage.

Now here is a seeming paradox. You can't be a good Christian and hate somebody, but at the same time, you can't be a good Christian and a communist at the same time.

Now let me revert to this preacher business. I am so relieved that the F B I has saved our lives. Their testimony has positively given us preachers a clean bill of health. So, my good Rotarian friends, don't doubt the loyalty of your preacher or your church. The F B I has made a thorough study of this charge of communist infiltration of the churches and publicly denounces all these charges as false.

The clergy of Rotary — such men as Bill Dickinson, Luther Holcomb, Bill Elliott, are typical preachers and good Rotarians and we can well feel that their leadership is good American and that it gives us a sense of security.

Thanks to the F B I for their endorsement. We were about sold down the river until they rowed out and got us.

Dear [Redacted]

Your telegram of October 20 has been received.

In connection with your comments, I would like to emphasize that Assistant Director William C. Sullivan did not whitewash communism in his presentation at Dallas. I am fully cognizant of his remarks and I know he clearly pointed out this is the first time in our Nation's history that it has faced the total challenge of communism--militarily, scientifically, socially, educationally and philosophically. Mr. Sullivan forcefully stated that we will be destroyed as a free and open society unless we successfully defeat communism. Quite correctly, he also strongly insisted that the most effective manner of combatting this menace is with truth and justice. This is something I have repeatedly said over the years. There was nothing in his lecture which contradicted "Masters of Deceit." As a matter of fact, he used material from my book in preparing his remarks.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Several weeks ago, Mr. Sullivan of the FBI gave a talk and answered questions at a meeting at Southern Methodist University. [redacted] and I were both quite disturbed about a number of things he said (i.e. playing down the communist threat; disclaiming any infiltration into the clergy, etc). We were so disturbed that [redacted] sent you a wire asking for your clarification on what was obviously a change of emphasis from YOUR books and articles.

Saturday we received your reply, which exonerated Mr. Sullivan from our suspicions.

Now I hate to disagree with you, Mr. Hoover, but something is obviously out of line somewhere. We, and a great many other people who also heard and read the remarks of Mr. Sullivan, are not idiots. Either you do not know what Sullivan is actually saying in his talks (and especially to the questions from the floor) or there has been a definite change in the direction of a soft-pedaling of the Red threat in the FBI policy.

To put it bluntly, we are not at all satisfied with your letter. I do not believe it is any longer possible to "fob off" the Americans who want real answers to their questions. Mr. Sullivan did an actual disservice to those of us who are fighting communism as best we know how (and based to a high degree on YOUR book) and we want to know why.

Very truly,

R. A. Surrey

By letter dated 10/30/61, above-captioned correspondent referred to a recent address by Assistant Director William C. Sullivan at Southern Methodist University, noted that correspondent and [] were disturbed by a number of things Mr. Sullivan said, and also noted that [] had wired the Director requesting a clarification of the Bureau position in this matter. Correspondent went on to state that, "we are not at all satisfied with your letter." He claimed that Mr. Sullivan had done an actual disservice to those who were fighting communism, "and we want to know why." Correspondent further claimed, "Either you do not know what Sullivan is actually saying in his talks ... or there has been a definite change in the direction of a soft-pedaling of the Red threat in the FBI policy."

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 24, 1963, that Robert Surrey planned to arrive in New York City on April 24, 1963, with former Major General Edwin A. Walker, who was scheduled to address a meeting of the National Society of New England Women at the Hotel Waldorf Astoria, New York City, on April 24, 1963.

On January 2, 1964, the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation received an anonymous letter dated December 28, 1963, in which the writer stated that [redacted] secretary to Edwin A. Walker, cancelled an account with a Dallas store because of an advertisement that store ran welcoming President Kennedy to Dallas. The anonymous writer also said that [redacted] also accompanied the General to Oxford, Mississippi.

On November 22, 1963, [redacted] Secretary of Parkland Hospital, Dallas, to which President Kennedy was taken after he had been shot, furnished the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation a piece of paper containing a number of names and comments which was found near the scene where newspaper reporters were making notes at the hospital. Included on this paper was the following: "Robert Surrey has been Walker's top aide. He went with him to Mississippi and has accompanied him on other trips."

On June 3, 1964, Surrey was interviewed by Special Agents of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation concerning his knowledge of the attempt on Edwin A. Walker's life on April 10, 1963. He stated he had visited General Walker on April 8, 1963, and again on April 10, 1963, after Walker called him on the telephone following the shooting incident.

ROBERT A. SURREY

Printing Office, Washington, 1964, describes the appearance of a "Wanted for Treason" handbill on the streets of Dallas one or two days before President Kennedy's arrival. These handbills bore a reproduction of a front and profile photograph of the President and set forth a series of inflammatory charges against him. Robert A. Surrey was eventually identified as the author of the handbill. Surrey, a 38 year old printing salesman, employed by the Johnson Printing Company of Dallas, Texas, has been closely associated with General Walker for several years in his political and business activities. He is President of American Eagle Publishing Company of Dallas, in which he is a partner with General Walker. Its office and address is the post office box of Johnson Printing Company. Its assets consist of cash and various printed materials composed chiefly of General Walker's political and promotional literature, all of which is stored at General Walker's headquarters.

Surrey prepared the text for the handbill and apparently used Johnson Printing Company facilities to set the type and print a proof.

A news story concerning the above excerpt from the report issued by the President's Commission appeared in "The Dallas Times Herald" for September 28, 1964.

On September 2, 1964, [redacted] home address [redacted] advised Special Agents of the Richmond Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that in order to write an article exposing George Lincoln Rockwell, National Commander of the American Nazi Party, (see appendix) he joined that organization in 1963. In addition to other information furnished by [redacted] he said that in July, 1964, Rockwell conceived the idea of forming a new "front group" at a conference to be held from July 24 through July 27, 1964. He mailed a letter to approximately 27 persons requesting them to meet at a "secret" city. The new "front group" was to appeal to the "frustrated middle-class, newly-awakened, worried and responsible white people." It was to obtain money and make members of people who are afraid of the Nazi Party and/c. "no longer panty-waist Birchers."

[redacted] stated that from July 24 to July 27, 1964, Rockwell and five other members of the American Nazi Party met with approximately twelve other persons near Nicholasville, Kentucky. One of those present was Robert Surrey of Dallas, and he was described as a member of the Board of Directors of an organization which was named the United White Christians Majorily. The organization was to be financed by the members of the Board of Directors, each of whom was to contribute $1,000.00 to give the organization its start.

[] said that an invitation had been sent to General Edwin Walker to attend the above meeting, but he did not attend. [] said that Rockwell, in [] opinion, conceived the above organization to obtain funds for the American Nazi Party and will attempt to manipulate the leaders of the "United White Christians Majority" for his own purposes. He said that the latter organization issued a brochure which will contain a petition. The petitions will be for the purpose of raising funds, and recipients who are asked to contribute money will not know that this organization is being operated by the American Nazi Party. [] characterized General Walker as the retired U. S. Army General who has, in the past, been very active in anti-integration movements in the Southern United States.

[] Program Director of Radio Station KALO, Little Rock, Arkansas, advised a Special Agent of the Little Rock Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on September 24, 1964, that he had received a letter on stationery of the "United White Christians Majority," Dodge House, Washington, D. C., which listed "Robert Surrey, Dallas, Texas," as President and Chairman of the Board of that organization.

On October 20, 1964, [] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the Dallas Office that Robert A. Surrey has been very close to General Edwin A. Walker for a considerable length of time and that [] has been a long-time volunteer office worker for Walker. Source advised that [] is one of the founders of the John Birch Society in Dallas. Source stated that [] had presented Madam Ngo Dinh Nhu of Viet Nam, a bouquet of roses upon the occasion of the latter's visit to Dallas on October 23, 1963.

b7D

This source stated he did not believe Surrey to be in a financial position to contribute any large sum of money to any organization with which he might be in sympathy and that if he had made such a contribution, General Walker, whose financial condition is excellent, was probably the real contributor of such money in Surrey's name.

GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses;" second "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party;" third "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda;" and fourth "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY

On February 17, 1964, Karl Rogers Allen, Jr., former Deputy National Commander of the ANP, advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is now well into the third phase. Allen said, however, in his opinion, Rockwell has only completed phase one.
